

Robert and Myrna Sherman

We strongly support the "Our Sound Our Salmon" recommendations to deny or, at the very least, delay any permitting action until pending legal actions are settled.

Cooke has a terrible environmental and safety track record. Letting Cooke farm in the Salish Sea would be a huge mistake.

Potential problems far out weigh any benefits.