

Margaret Jerome

Please keep net pens out of our waters. It only takes one mistake to foul that environment for years - even decades. There are other ways to add to our food system without that risk.