

Sara Eldridge

Please don't hurry this decision. It has wide ranging consequences which have not been sufficiently studied. The public should not have to suffer the financial burden of the profit of a private corporation. The damage to many ecological systems could be expensively in the immediate future and pricelessly damaged in the long term.

Please, let's get all of the required information together in the public's best interest.