

Sharon Dunn

I strongly opposed any continued activity by Cooke Aquaculture in the Salish Sea. Their record should say everything - irresponsible, concerned only about profit, damaging our native species - simply not needed. Others are giving you the science. I am counting on an agency of my state to do the right thing and protect our native waters and its species.