

Katherine Marshall

So many people have worked so hard to clean up and preserve Puget Sound and its sea life. What a shame to even consider relaxing pollution rules for aquaculture - which makes the Sound filthy, which introduces fish disease, and which suffers escapes from the pens regularly. NO relaxing of rules for commercialization!!!