

Bruce Harrison

I don't know how a Canadian company ever was able to ever establish any fish farming operations in our waters in the first place. What's wrong with DOE to let this happen, why doesn't Cooke just farm in Canadian waters. Especially after one location farm failure their leases should have been terminated right then and sent back to Canada never to foul our waters again.