

Mollie Pepper

My family has lived on a bay that had a Cooke pen introduced to it many years ago. The change in the ecology of the bay in that time has been no less than shocking. Does the proposed change in fish type address this issue? If not, the leases should not be extended and the pens should be removed as soon as possible under the current agreements.