

Eric Stavig

These fish farms have been a big part of our family's life. My wife work for them for 20 years and now my son works there. Washington State needs to keep all farms whether on land or in our local waters operating. These farms don't just keep their workers employed, but those businesses they work with. Keep Washington's economy strong. APPROVE these applications.