

Greg Abel

I support this permit application. Both the State and the Public would benefit. There is no risk to other species as these fish are sterile and can't reproduce. Fish are vital to our diet and our health. To insure there are adequate supplies of of fish at reasonable prices we need to be able to raise them and not depend on wild stocks.