

L Lindberg

You have got to be kidding me! The state is phasing out non-native Atlantic fish largely due to these same people letting tons of fish free. Now you want to let them pollute the waters with a "native" species, which could have dire adverse effects on the local population if they got out? They "say" they'll be sterilized - why should anyone trust this company?

JUST SAY NO.