

Ray Foster

Filthy fish farms do nothing to enhance the native populations of native fish. The risks are many, including diluting of the native species by the farmed fish. Save our native fish. Do not allow for profit fish farming where native species are valued.