

David Baynes

This past year there has been an extreme increase in the number of sea lions swimming to/from the Orchard Rocks Rick Passage net pens. Many groups of four and more can be seen which has not been the case in past years. The noise they make at the pens is extremely annoying. Aren't there local noise ordinances to be considered? This is not right or fair to have the Bainbridge Island residents suffer through this major inconvenience.