

Mike Brinkley

I object to the proposal to operate fish farms of any kind in Washington waters. They are a source of disease, pollution, and are a danger to wild fish. They also deplete important stocks of small fish that are fed to these penned fish. Aquaculture, if it is allowed must be carried out in ponds on land, not in the ocean.