

Kassandra Grimm

I am against the Cooke Aquaculture project in the Salish Sea. It will harm the precious ecosystem and degrade the water quality. As a water quality specialist, I have no reason to believe the Cooke Aquaculture project will not harm the habitat many precious and endangered species rely upon.