

Sharon Dunn

It would be criminal to allow this corporation to continue to operate in the Salish Sea. Their record shows a litany of incompetence and lack of respect for the environment. I do not support the State of Washington allowing the Cooke Aquaculture to continue. The state and its citizens are meant to be stewards of the environment, not exploiters. I expect our governmental agencies to take care of the sea, not rape it.