

Kitty Maguire

With all of the uncontrollable assaults on our precious steelhead population, this is one thing we can and must control. I support a reduction in fish farming and hope that the denial of this change in the permit may lead to that.