

Onna Gullickson

Cooke supplies jobs to many community members. It's been in the community for 30 years. They are looking to follow rules set up by the government and make community members happy.