

Jim Moreland

Our street is closed several times a year to allow large trucks to deliver supplies, nets and fish to the aqua farm.

In addition, their operation brings sea lions to take up positions on the buoy opposite the nets and bark endlessly morning noon and all night..

Finally, it is an eye sore and a cause for loud hammering as they move pens. Their operation is in the middle of our neighborhood and not appreciated