

Randy Hodgin

With the United States demand for seafood continuing to grow we need to allow Cooke Aquaculture to receive this permit to raise sterile Steelhead trout. Our own wild stocks will never be able to support the demand for salmon and trout. The sterile steelhead can be raised in an environmentally way. Finfish aquaculture is the way of the future.