

Molly Quade

Aquaculture has caused problems with the fish population and killer whale population, specifically in the Salish Sea. Just look it up and there's hundreds of resources that back up what the Department of Ecology is trying to do. We don't NEED to have more aquaculture for us to get by and the only party benefiting from the expansion would be Cooke.