

Mark Leganza

Please do not allow these people to continue to pollute Puget Sound. They have proven themselves incapable of safely operating these platforms. I have been boating by the Hope Island facility many times and always was amazed it was still afloat.