

Jesse Korb

As a local angler & resident of Spokane, I contend that variances are bad for our River. As a citizen of the inland northwest, I would love to see our continued efforts in our clean cool water that we can pass down to generations proudly. Thanks!