

Donna Borden Rhodes

The goal should be to decrease PCBs in the river, not to allow for companies to avoid pollution abatement and continue to harm the river and the living creatures that depend on it for sustenance. No variances and decrease PCBs for the benefit of all of us.