

Mary Sullivan

I am strongly opposed to a variance for PCB levels in the Spokane River. If a variance is issued, human nature is such that nothing will be done until the end of this 20 year window. If no variance is granted this problem will be tackled now. Now is the time. NO VARIANCE.