

Leeanna WhisperingHorse

This PCB Variance is bad for the Spokane river. We as 'the most intelligent' species should know this. Haven't we done enough damage already? We need to think outside the box to create less toxic environments, not going backwards and trying to get away with old unworkable solutions just because they are easier. We are better than that, or we should be.