

Anonymous Anonymous

Common sense says PCB's or any other damaging pollutants don't belong in the Spokane River at all. Nature is a gift and should be respected and passed on for generations after us. Not only for us humans, but also to protect wildlife and natural habitat along the Spokane River.