

Patrick Baumann

Cooke Aquaculture Pacific has proven again and again that they are poor stewards of the Salish Sea. In the past, when breaches have occurred, their only response was a litany of excuses. Before any new permit is granted, please verify new processes are in place to protect our sea. Based on history alone though, I recommend rejecting the permit request.