

Katherine Scott

I'm appalled that this permit is even being considered.

Seriously?

Why would we trust Cooke Aquaculture now in view of their criminal past actions and the lies they told?

Mitigations may be made, good intentions may be promised, but pollution remains inevitable and when their freak fish escape again into our waters the damage will be done.