

Janet Marx

Has Ecology ever conducted a survey of the sea floor (benthic layer, micro sea life, forage fish populations, etc.) prior to installation of a net pen operation and then conducted a follow-up survey four or five years later to determine changes to the water quality and sea-life health?

If not, how can you approve an open net pen permit?