

Eleanor Mattice

Please do NOT allow fish farming in the Puget Sound. Fish farms pose a danger to native fish stocks with infections that are easily passed from the farmed fish. Please help our native salmon/steelhead fish improve their numbers. This, in turn, will help the orca survive. Fish farms have caused a lot of problems around the world. I do not want fish farms polluting the waters of the Puget Sound.