

Joseph Lubischer

Unfortunately, the NGP is effectively an excuse for continuing damaging pollution to Puget Sound by WWTPs. Real solutions, not incremental foot-dragging, is required. Ecology needs to follow the non-degradation law and require AKART level processes, i.e. "tertiary treatment", at all WWTPs discharging to Puget Sound.