

Dan O'Donnell

This comment concerns the La Conner wastewater treatment treatment plant. Since 1976 the plant has discharged to the Swinomish Channel. I believe it should discharge to the nearby Sullivan Slough.

The slough provides the necessary mixing by virtue of the Drainage District 15 outflow. The area affected is much larger than the confines of the Swinomish Channel. Nutrient loading would be less.

Dan O'Donnell