

Bridget Palecek

It's about time we protect our waters from corporations who abuse our environment. The days of big money buying the right to pollute are over and we all need to protect our God given right to breathe fresh air and drink unpolluted water. Pass this amendment to protect our waters.