

d robinson

I support the strongest regulations against dumping of any pollutants in Puget Sound by cruise ships or any ships for that matter. Frankly, I'd rather not see any cruise ships return to any where within the Salish Sea! The climate crisis is real and we have to start reducing our dependency on fossil fuels and the cruise industry is a great place to start!