

C Lenihan

PLEASE ban the discharge of scrubber wastes in high traffic inlets like Puget Sound, where the build up of scrubber dumping is compounding, with serious implications impacting endangered species like Orca whales.

It is essential we maintain healthy ecosystems needed for the survival of some of the most threatened marine species — like Orcas and Chinook salmon. Use this opportunity to provide permanent protection from fossil fuel waste in Puget Sound!