

Mary Ann Wiesemann-Mills

Every bit of life that God created is precious. Please respect the life of the orcas and salmon by banning all waste from cruise ships that are poisoning the water in which they swim. We don't like dirty water and neither do these animals!