

Steve Schueth

Please protect the beautiful coastline and sparkling waters of Puget Sound for all wildlife, especially endangered orcas, and ban scrubbers from these waters - they are a national treasure and deserve to be treated with the care and caution that requires. Protect these waters for the citizens of the world.