

MARCIA GODICH

I understand that humans have to live in this world too, but we won't have a world that is liveable if we continue to pollute our waters. It is time for companies to stop the pollution before it begins rather than having to clean up afterwards. Ocean life, and eventually all life depends on this. Please make a decision for the earth in adopting this amendment