

Maureen Whalen

Please take the important action of banning scrubbers in Puget Sound. Marine mammals need clean waters to flourish and thrive and pollution from scrubbers makes for a perilous environment. Please do what's right for our struggling wild places and the animals that live within these waters.