

Lauren Schiffman

I support amendment #2 to ban scrubbers. The current loophole allows cruise ships to burn one of the dirtiest fossil fuels on earth - heavy fuel oil - by 'scrubbing' the exhaust and discharge the toxin-laden wastewater directly into the ocean, which is dangerous for ocean life and habitats. We need to protect marine mammals and other ecologically important residents of the Puget Sound.