

Giulio Maestro

Re MOU: for too long the oceans have been a dumping ground for waste of all kinds; plastics and toxic substances must not be dumped in any waterways. In the long run future generations of wildlife and people will suffer if we don't curtail this activity.