

Alice Naegele

You should have seen how beautiful our ocean looked, when the pandemic hit and the cruise ships stopped. While I want to respect the choice that many people make to enjoy a cruise, the industry should be held to a high standard of accountability toward keeping the oceans clean!