

Ralph Billick

Please keep what laws are on the books already. I ask that you never let cruise ships discharge their waste at all and make them use a facility that can handle it. I was appalled as an American citizen to find out how much this industry fouls our waters and sea life and that any congress person would think that it would be okay. Another billion dollar industry not caring about anything but profits ,
d i s g u s t i n g