

Marilyn Thompson

In Puget Sound, the buildup of scrubber dumping is compounding and has serious implications on endangered species like killer whales. All such scrubbing does is convert air pollution into water pollution and dump this fossil fuel combustion wastewater into the ocean. This is not a viable solution.

If we are going to protect the environment and preserve marine species, now is the time. I am in support of an amendment to ban the discharge of scrubber wastes. Please take responsibility and make this happen.