

Laurie Sterling

Please put a permanent end to scrubber dumping. We must protect our waterways for future generations as our generation has no right to destroy what cannot be replaced just because it is inconvenient. Please commit to finding an innovative solution that protects our environment that industry can be proud of.