

Natasha Green

Puget sound is a very unique ecosystem that needs protections. No where else on earth do six gill sharks have a nursery. No where else are there the seal and salmon hunting orcas (a huge tourist attraction). And if we dont do something about the pollution, we could loose what makes Puget sound a jewel in the Salish sea.