

Thérèse Dowd

It is essential that the Puget Sound be protected from all pollution as much as possible. Cruise ships must be held accountable for the management and costs of their wastes. They cannot be allowed to dump into the Puget Sound and further contaminate our precious waters. One of the duties of oversight bodies is to recommend and monitor best practices for our environment. Please ensure that you create conditions to protect our waters. Thank you.