

kym harris

There needs to be consequences for abuses against the planet. It is not acceptable for humans to contaminate and destroy the ocean, air or soil. Enough is enough and we must hold corporations responsible for the amount of pollutants they create including excessive packaging. We must not allow our oceans to be filled with toxins. Please stop this toxic practice now! Our Orcas are already about to vanish. Stop pushing them to extinction.