

gabriele holnd

This has gone on too far. Cruise ships are a danger to the environment and the people on board. The waste that is thrown out and animals eat this shit is uncalled for and needs to be stopped NOW AND FOREVER. Big companies don't care about the environment just money in their pockets. Listen to the people who care about the environment and all its creatures.