

Kathleen Ayres

Frankly I cannot even believe this has to come to debate. It should be obvious to every human, business, corporation and governing entity that this war on nature and the environment has to end. When our natural world is clean and thriving, so do we. This scrubber dump is a disgusting exhibition of stupidity.